

telemarketers do have the right to call but I have the right to not have them call me if I so choose. I do not wish for them to call me. When you tell them you are not interested they keep talking or they continue to keep calling harrassing